REPORT OF SCHOOL BOARD.

---

To the Citizens of Salisbury School District:

We have a few words, worthy of mention:

One thing is the indifference shown by some of the parents.

Some of the children are not able to go to school, but are able to go fishing. Now some of the parents are justly to blame for all such wrong, and ought to try to remedy it. While others work hard to have their children attend school and have their names on the roll of honor and teach them to be good men and women, with just and upright morals, and such parents should be blest, and helped by all mankind. Now let us all attend the school meeting and one and all try to help the children of Salisbury.

Thanking you for all kindness we are

Truly yours,

F. S. SARGENT,
JOHN SANBORN,
JOHN LITTLE,

School Board of Salisbury.
